Cowles & Thompson Associate Re-Elected to 2018 Board of Directors of the Dallas Association of Young Lawyers

November 30, 2017 (Dallas, TX) -- Cowles & Thompson associate attorney, Helen Hutton, was recently elected to a second term as a Director with the Dallas Association of Young Lawyers (DAYL). She will also continue as Co-Chair of the DAYL Judicial Internship Committee, and has been a member of DAYL since 2012.

Helen practices in the areas of civil litigation and civil appeals, with a primary focus in insurance defense and commercial disputes. Previously, she served as a briefing attorney for the Honorable Douglas S. Lang, Fifth District Court of Appeals of Texas, 2014-15 and as a judicial intern for the Honorable John R. Roach, Jr., 296th Judicial District Court, 2012.

In addition to DAYL, Helen is a member of the State Bar of Texas, the Dallas Bar Association, the American Bar Association, and the William "Mac" Taylor American Inn of Court. She received her B.S. in Business Administration with concentrations in Economics and Finance, magna cum laude, from Saint Louis University and her J.D., cum laude, from Southern Methodist University Dedman School of Law.

Cowles and Thompson is a full-service law firm with offices in Dallas and Plano, Texas. 2017 marks the firm's 39th year of serving the Dallas-Fort Worth region, Texas, and the nation. Cowles and Thompson attorneys represent clients in high-stakes litigation and provide effective, creative, efficient solutions for their clients' most complex problems.
