Practice Emphasis

Stuart O'Neil has over thirty years of legal experience, and has successfully defended clients in a wide variety of litigation including: personal injury, healthcare, medical malpractice, trucking, product liability, construction law, premises liability, and general litigation. In addition to being a senior shareholder, he is the healthcare section head at Cowles and Thompson, and also a member of the tort litigation section. Stuart has successfully tried many high value cases to jury verdict over the last 5 years.

Stuart represents hospitals, playground manufactures, pharmacies, trucking companies, nursing homes, acute care facilities, hospice agencies, carriers and other companies from Texas' southern border to the panhandle. He has also worked with healthcare companies in amending and updating their policies, procedures and bylaws. Stuart has also led a group of attorneys, who defend the largest international retailer in matters relating to pharmacy, security, slip and fall, fallen merchandise, and other areas. Additionally, he represents a large national healthcare company representing all their facilities on a broad range of matters including premises liability claims, auto liability claims, healthcare and medical malpractice claims throughout the State of Texas. Stuart has experience in both Texas state and federal courts, and in administrative disciplinary proceedings with the Texas Board of Nursing, Texas Medical Board, Texas State Board of Dental Examiners, and Texas Department of Aging and Disability Services. He has also served in an advisory capacity for clients seeking to develop national strategy for the defense of their tort and healthcare litigation.

Stuart is a member of the State Bar of Texas, the Claims and Litigation Management Alliance, the Dallas Bar Association, and the Defense Research Institute. He is admitted to practice in all of the United States District Courts of Texas.
