Representative Matters

Business/Commercial Litigation

- June 2010 - Tony Mallers filed a Rule 12(b)(6) Motion to Dismiss in the United States Bankruptcy Court seeking dismissal of RICO claims against his clients in a multi-party adversary proceeding. The court granted the motion dismissing those claims.

- November 2009 – Tony Mallers as lead counsel negotiated a dismissal of federal RICO and state law fraud claims against his client in the United States District Court in Austin, Texas after filing Motions to Dismiss with the Court.
- 2009 – After a 3 day non-jury trial in Tarrant County, Texas, a trial team led by Tony Mallers obtained a Judgment for 195,000.00 for their client, an unpaid general contractor which had performed substantial tenant finish out work. The Court ordered foreclosure of the contractor's mechanic's lien.
- 2009 – Tony Mallers as lead counsel successfully obtained a court order removing a mechanic's lien wrongfully filed against a construction project in the District Court of Denton County, Texas.
- 2009 – After a one day non-jury trial in Dallas County, Texas, Tony Mallers as lead counsel obtained a Judgment for $119,000.00 on behalf of his client, an unpaid flooring supplier, against the management company of an apartment complex, overcoming the argument that the management company was merely an agent for a disclosed principal. The Judgment was collected.
- 2008 – Tony Mallers as lead counsel obtained a final summary judgment in Travis County, Texas dismissing all claims against his client, a shopping center developer from Round Rock, Texas, in a suit brought by a materials supplier against the developer and the general contractor on the project.
- 2008 – A general contractor represented by Tony Mallers obtained a settlement of its breach of warranty claims against a nationally known paint manufacturer and its local distributor for an amount exceeding $110,000.00 arising from improper catalyzation of a staining product used on wooden cabinets inside the residence.
- 2005 – Homeowners in Plano, Texas represented by Tony Mallers as lead counsel settled breach of warranty claims against a nationally known water heater manufacturer for $1.15 million after the water heater ruptured and flooded the house.
- 2005 – Tony Mallers successfully brought a Texas Lemon Law Claim against BMW North America on behalf of his client resulting in a brand new vehicle to replace the defective vehicle.

Divorce/Family Law

- 2007 – After a non-jury trial in Dallas County, Texas, a parent represented by Tony Mallers obtained a judgment awarding his client the exclusive right to designate the primary residence of two children.
- 2002 – After a jury trial in Collin County, Texas, the jury awarded the parent represented by Tony Mallers the exclusive right to designate the children's primary residence within Collin County.
- 1999 – After a jury trial in Denton County, Texas, a client represented by Tony Mallers obtained a jury verdict awarding his client the exclusive right to designate the child's primary residence.
- 1987 – present: Tony Mallers has represented clients in dozens of family law cases, including divorce, paternity, modifications, enforcement, breach of alimony contracts, and interpretation and enforcement of pre-nuptial and post-nuptial agreements. By far the vast majority of these cases have settled out of court after a few preliminary hearings, depositions, or mediations. Mr. Mallers has demonstrated skill and expertise in guiding his clients through the difficult and many times traumatic emotional and financial experience of divorce.
