

Family Law

Family cases involve important life changing events. They are emotionally draining and often involve complex legal issues, many of which are of an urgent nature. At Cowles and Thompson, we are dedicated to providing timely advice and results. We also understand the importance of trust, and are committed to open and personal communication with our clients.

The attorneys at Cowles and Thompson constantly strive to assist clients in understanding the unique issues involved in their particular case while at the same time working to achieve an equitable legal outcome. We understand that in many cases, we are the only voice for our client.

Our attorneys possess the compassion, dedication, and fundamental legal skills necessary for the successful and efficient resolution of family cases. We have a long history of representing clients in a variety of family cases and are proud of the relationships we have made, and the results we have obtained for those clients.

Our areas of experience include:

- Adoption
- Annulment
- Custody/Visitation
- Divorce
- Modification and Enforcement of Orders
- Paternity
- Pre-and post nuptial agreements
- Property Division
- Protective and Restraining Orders
- Spousal Support

We always consider the particular facts and circumstances of each case to determine the best avenue for resolution. While traditional litigation may be the best option for some clients, others may benefit from collaborative law or mediation. No matter which legal path is chosen, our attorneys will be there to assist the client each step of the way.
