

Hospitality and Lodging

C&T provides litigation advice and legal counsel to owners of hotels, management companies, and franchisors and franchisees on a variety of operational and complex cutting-edge legal issues unique to the hospitality and lodging industry. Attorneys also represent clients in the acquisition and disposition of hotels located in major markets throughout the United States.

Our attorneys regularly attend industry conferences to keep current on legal issues, including the Annual Hospitality Law Conference, ALIS Conference, NYU Conference and Lodging Conference. Members of the Group routinely speak at hotel industry conferences and present seminars on legal issues impacting the hospitality industry.

The Hospitality and Lodging Practice Group provides legal counsel and advice in the following matters:

2,000

C&T has handled over 2,000 Business matters.

- Acquisition and disposition of hotels
- Alcoholic beverage issues
- Americans with Disabilities Act
- Condemnation proceedings
- Construction
- Encroachment, intra-brand competition and area of protection issues
- Franchise and disclosure issues
- Franchise litigation
- Hotel condominium litigation
- Hotel management agreements - operational and mismanagement issues
- Loans, joint ventures and finance
- Lender-borrower disputes
- Premises liability and security issues
- Price gouging litigation
- Workout, bankruptcy and receivership disputes

Cowles & Thompson is a proud member of the Texas Hotel & Lodging Association and it sponsors the Texas Hotel Law Library for Litigation on the Hospitality Lawyer website.

Please visit:

www.hospitalitylawyer.com/state_listings.php?state=TX&industry=1&topic=23

Dallas Office

901 Main Street, Suite 3900
Dallas, TX 75202
Tel: 214-672-2000 | Fax: 214-672-2020

Tyler Office

1202 First Place
Tyler, TX 75702
Tel: 903-596-9000 | Fax: 903-596-9005

www.cowlesthompson.com