

Insurance Coverage and Litigation

The attorneys in C&T's Insurance Coverage Section have been engaged in the representation of insurance and risk management interests for many years. We have served as counsel to numerous property and casualty insurance companies, professional liability underwriters, life insurance companies, and reinsurance companies.

Our attorneys have the experience to provide opinions on all lines of insurance and all types of policies. But what sets us apart is that our insurance coverage attorneys are trial lawyers, with actual courtroom experience litigating complex coverage, bad faith and other related issues. These attorneys analyze complicated insurance coverage matters and stand ready to defend the positions recommended to our clients.

Our coverage attorneys are experienced in analyzing most types of coverage, including

- General liability
- Commercial and personal auto
- UM and UIM
- Homeowners'
- Surety
- Commercial property policies
- Excess and umbrella policies
- Construction wrap-up policies (OCIP)
