Practice Emphasis

Helen Emerson is a Shareholder in the Dallas office of Cowles Thompson, practicing primarily in the areas of civil litigation and civil appeals. Helen served as a briefing attorney for the Honorable Douglas S. Lang, Fifth District Court of Appeals of Texas, 2014-15 and as a judicial intern for the Honorable John R. Roach, Jr., 296th Judicial District Court, 2012.

Representative Matters

- Obtained take-nothing Summary Judgment on all claims of negligence asserted against a client in Collin County, Texas. Plaintiff, a professional power lifter and bodybuilder, alleged numerous personal injuries resulting from purported defects in a weight bench that Plaintiff was using while working out at a local gym. Obtained complete dismissal on all claims by arguing, on behalf of the client gym owner, that the weight bench did not constitute an “unreasonably dangerous condition,” and even if there was a defect with the bench (which there was not), there was no notice to the premises owner of any alleged dangerous condition that caused injury to Plaintiff. Co-counsel with David Johnson. 2021
- Obtained a take-nothing Summary Judgment on all claims of products liability and negligence asserted against a client in Bee County, Texas. Plaintiff, a paraplegic inmate in the custody of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice, alleged that a heating unit on a prison bus malfunctioned and caused second- and third-degree burns to his legs during transport. Plaintiff sought in excess of $1 million for his alleged injuries. Obtained complete dismissal on all claims through argument that there was no manufacturing, design, or marketing defect present when the product was manufactured and placed into the stream of commerce by our client. Further successfully established there was a “substantial alteration” in the product during subsequent maintenance of the product (which was outside the control of the client) that proximately caused the alleged injuries. Co-counsel with David Johnson. 2021
- Successful jury trial in which the plaintiff sought damages at $7 million from our client franchisee and franchisee’s employee for injuries arising from a motor vehicle accident. We obtained summary judgment on claims against the corporate franchisor and gross negligence claims against the franchisee and its employee. By stipulating liability and arguing responsibility for damages was limited to a specific time frame, the resulting award was less than $200,000. 2018
- Successful jury trial in which plaintiff sought damages in excess of $5 million for alleged injuries arising out of a trucking accident with our client, an oil field services company. By stipulating to liability and contesting the plaintiff’s alleged brain injury, we limited damages to those relevant to the plaintiff’s uncontested spinal injury, which were a fraction of those sought by the plaintiff from the West Texas jury. 2018

- Successful bench trial win and take-nothing judgment for our client, a private contractor, in a case where the plaintiff alleged that our client damaged plaintiff's property while performing repairs to streets and sidewalks. 2017
- Successful jury trial win and take-nothing judgment for our client, a retailer, in a case where the plaintiff alleged assault by an employee and sought in excess of $5 million in damages. 2016
